

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
OCTOBER 1 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2012

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A weekly half-hour public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: "HELPING FEELS GOOD" - A half-hour quarterly special consisting of a series of reports showing how CBS4's Neighbors 4 Neighbors provided support and assistance to South Florida residents in need during the holiday season of 2012. Broadcast dates and times as indicated on the report.

FAMILY: Topics in this category include: volunteer project at homes for military veterans; conference for families; event for homeless pets and low-income pet owners; teddy bears for children in crisis; and holiday help for low-income families.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: 9/11 DAY OF SERVICE & REMEMBRANCE: 12/23, 10 AM. This report focused on a Hands-on Broward team of volunteers who came together to create edible gardens at Keystone Halls, a residence for U.S. military veterans. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: DRAGONFLY DARLINGS WOMEN'S CONFERENCE. 12/23, 10 AM. This report covered the Dragonfly Darlings Women's Conference which is a special local event intended to strengthen families through increased parental education and access to resources to prevent poverty. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: PETSTRAVAGANZA. 12/23, 10 AM. This report profiled an event organized by the Homeless Pet Advocates and Pet Stop Mobile Health Clinic that provided free pet adoptions and low cost immunization. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: ADOPT A BEAR. 12/23, 10 AM. This report profiled the Neighbors 4 Neighbors Adopt A Bear program that gives comfort in the form of teddy bears to children during difficult times and are distributed through family courts, fire rescue units and Florida Department of Law Enforcement in Miami-Dade County. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: ADOPT-A-FAMILY ANNIVERSARY. 12/23, 10 AM. This report focused on the 20th anniversary of the Neighbors 4 Neighbors Adopt-A-Family program that over the years have counted on the support of groups and businesses to provide help to families in need for the holidays or host toy and gift card drives.

HEALTH: Topics in this category include: event to raise funds and awareness for the fight against breast cancer; and health benefits of meditation.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/14, 10 AM. Katy Meagher, representing the Miami/Fort Lauderdale Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure and Carla Hill, breast cancer survivor, discussed the upcoming Race for the Cure taking place in Miami on October 20 and shared inspiring survivor stories. 12/16, 10 AM. Ubi Sheihk, a meditation expert discussed how his spiritual teachings help people worldwide, and the connection between mind, and body. 12/16, 10 AM. Alesander Alambert, a Coral Gables firefighter and member of the Brahma Kumaris Spiritual University discussed how he uses the art of meditation to achieve peace, good health and balance in his life and the lives of others.

ECONOMY/POVERTY: Topics in this category include: South Florida growing technology industry; impact of federal Fiscal Cliff on South Florida; training program for the homeless in culinary arts; campaign to advocate for the homeless; food drive at local school; and fundraising campaign for food programs.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/21, 10 AM. Dr. Susan Amat, Founder Launchpad Tech discussed how South Florida is becoming an attractive location for technology programmers and entrepreneurs. 12/9, 10 AM. Al Sunshine, CBS4 Chief Consumer Investigator discussed the federal "Fiscal Cliff" and how the logjam on Capitol Hill might impact South Florida families if an agreement is not reached by the end of the year. 12/16, 10 AM. Norman van Aken, world-renown master chef discussed how he is working with the Miami-Dade Homeless Trust to put homeless people to work by teaching them culinary skills. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: HOMELESS AWARENESS DAY. 12/23, 10 AM. This report focused on a campaign involving thousands of students from local universities who rallied across South Florida to advocate for those living in shelters and on the streets. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: HARVEST DRIVE. 12/23, 10 AM. This report focused on the Harvest Drive, a campaign organized by a local mother to collect food for families in need at her son's elementary school and distributes goods to more than 10 distribution sites in Broward County. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: PUBLIX FOOD 4 ALL. 12/23, 10 AM. This report focused on a campaign by a chain of local supermarkets called "Food 4 All" that raises funds during the holiday season to support more than 80 local non-profits feed the hungry.

ENVIRONMENT/STORM RELIEF: Topics in this category include: bicycling program to protect the environment; new law against animal cruelty; American Red Cross relief for Super Storm Sandy relief; and local programs to help victims of Super Storm Sandy.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/28, 10 AM. Robert Ruano, Environmental Activist/Chair of Gables Bike Day discussed this annual event to raise funds for a safer Coral Gables for cyclists and walkers while protecting the natural environment and public places. 11/4, 10 AM. Jeff Nelson, Mayor of Southwest Ranches and Richard Couto, Animal Abuse Investigator discussed a recently enacted law in Southwest Ranches in response to a rash of horses being slaughtered for their meat which is considered the toughest equine protection laws in the state. 11/11, 10 AM. Patricia Rojas, spokesperson for the American Red Cross, South Florida Region, discussed how the organization is responding to victims of Hurricane Sandy along the Northeast shore and their partnership with the local CBS stations and the Miami Dolphins to raise funds for the relief effort. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: SUPER STORM SANDY RELIEF. 12/23, 10 AM. This report showed how several local groups coordinated efforts to bring blankets, clothing, batteries and other household and personal items to help those in the northeast affected by Super Storm Sandy and mentioned a $1,000 donation by Neighbors 4 Neighbors to the American Red Cross as part of a national relief campaign organized by CBS Stations.

EDUCATION/CULTURE: Topics in this category include: outreach program to encourage interests in geography; nationwide initiative to help students stay in school and get into college; local youth program to encourage the sharing of ideas and views; women's conference to help mothers of low-income students; Miami Book Fair International; world-class art event in South Florida; local mural project; revitalizing inner city community through music project; culinary program for people with disabilities; after school programs celebration; help for student wrestler; encouraging kindness; and high school program to teach veterinary arts.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10 AM. FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/14, 10 AM. Barrington Irving, National Geographic's Explorer of the Year who was born and raised in South Florida discussed his success story and his school outreach efforts to encourage local children to learn about geography. 10/21, 10 AM. Marcus Bright, FIU Professor, representing Education for a Better America discussed a nationwide initiative that has been launched locally to keep students on the right track and get them motivated about getting through high school and into college. 10/28, 10 AM. Matt Haggmann, Knight Foundation Program Director/Co-Curator for TEDxMIA; Arvi Balseiro, Head of the Cushman School/Co-Founder of TEDxYOUTH@MIAMI; and Joshua Glottman, Ransom Everglades School Student/Inaugural TEDx Speaker 2011, discussed a local youth group that is an off-shoot of the national movement called TED encouraging students to share ideas and views. 10/28, 10 AM. Lysandra Russell, Dragonfly Darlings/Wife of former Miami Dolphin Twan Russell, founder of the Russell Reading Room & Life Skills Program and Neal Heller, CEO of the Hollywood Institute of Beauty Careers/Sponsor of the Dragonfly Darlings Women's Conference discussed how the Dragonfly Darlings provides support for inner-city, low-income women whose children are benefitting from the Russell Reading Program. 10/28, 10 AM. Mitch Kaplan, co-founder of Miami Book Fair International discussed this world-class event that brings hundreds of authors, publishers and book lovers to South Florida. 11/11, 10 AM. Manny Diaz, former City of Miami Mayor and author discussed his new book "Miami Transformed" which is going to be featured at the upcoming Miami Book Fair International. 12/2, 10 AM. Gary Nader, Gary Nader Fine Art and Matthew Abess, Curator, The Wolfsonian-FIU discussed Art Basel, an annual event that attracts artists and art lovers from across the world to many venues throughout South Florida. 12/2, 10 AM. Jessica Goldman, CEO, Goldman Properties discussed the Wynwood Walls founded by her late father Tony Goldman. The Walls are a series of large scale murals painted by local artists on buildings throughout the Miami inner city neighborhood known as Wynwood. 12/2, 10 AM. Amy Rosenberg, Overtown Music Project and Dr. Cassandra Eisenreich, UM Frost School of Music discussed the Overtown Music Project, a collaboration between the University of Miami Frost School of Music and the Overtown community which is attempting to bring back to this Miami inner city neighborhood its reputation as the jazz and blues epicenter during the 50's, 60's and 70's. 12/9, 10 AM. Andre Marins, executive chef and Kamaria, student chef discussed the ARC Broward Culinary Institute, a nonprofit organization that provides culinary programs to people with special needs and explained how the aspiring chefs learn their craft in fully operational kitchens, cater commercially, and also provide meals to low-income individuals and families.

EDUCATION/CULTURE (continued)NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD:

CHILDREN'S SERVICES COUNCIL LIGHTS ON AFTERSCHOOL: 12/23, 10 AM. This report covered a celebration of the non-profit organizations that run afterschool programs in Broward County and serves more than 21,000 students. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS

HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: HELP FOR STUDENT WRESTLER. 12/23, 10 AM. This report focused on a local high school student who was invited to represent the United States at an international wrestling competition and was able to travel after receiving donations through the Neighbors 4 Neighbors Family Fund. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS

HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: KINDNESS CARDS LAUNCH. 12/23, 10 AM. This report focused on the launch of the Neighbors 4 Neighbors kindness card campaign designed to inspire kindness in the community by featuring artwork created by students from the YMCA of Broward County and Greater Miami afterschool programs. NEIGHBORS 4

NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: VETERINARIAN MAGNET PROGRAM. 12/23, 10 AM. This report focused on a local high school program that provides hands-on learning opportunities for students aspiring to become veterinarians and teams up with Friends Forever Pet Rescue to help stray dogs stay healthy and find loving homes.

CRIME/PUBLIC SAFETY: Topics in this category include: increasing risks of property squatters; impact of terrorist attack in Libya on local Islamic community; and efforts to prevent child abuse.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 11/18, 10 AM. Brittney Baretto, Realtor, Ralph Cabrera, Coral Gables Commissioner and Nancy Hogan, Realtor discussed a growing problem across South Florida involving a number of "squatters" who are moving into houses that they do not own or have rented and the difficulties that the real homeowners are experiencing through the legal system in trying to evict them. 11/18, 10 AM. Naseem Mahdi, National Vice President of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community USA discussed the terrorist attack in Libya that killed Ambassador Christopher Stevens, the Congressional hearings in Washington, and how the Islamic community in South Florida is standing up against terrorism. 12/9, 10 AM. Lauren Book, child abuse survivor discussed her Emmy-award winning documentary and her efforts to prevent child abuse and help young victims.

POLITICS/GOVERNMENT: Topics in this category include: national elections reform; concerns over voting equipment accuracy; and problems at local polls during national elections.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/14, 10 AM. Rob Kilmer, founder of YouDefendIt.com discussed how he wants to hold presidential candidates accountable by eliminating talking points during debates. 10/21, 10 AM. Rob Kilmer, Attorney and founder of youdefendit.com discussed his efforts to make political elections easier and more transparent. 11/4, 10 AM. Lida Rodriguez-Taseff, Voting Rights Activist discussed concerns regarding the equipment and procedures being employed in Florida for the upcoming national elections. 11/11, 10 AM. State Senator Dan Gelber and Phillis Oeters, Chair of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce discussed the problems at the polls in South Florida during the November elections which included extensively long lines and delays in certifying results.

.